42-CENTIMETER GUN FOR AMERICAN ARMY IS THE LATEST PLAN

WAR DEPARTMENT WILL UTILIZE GERMAN WEAPON IN DEFENSE SCHEME

French 75's to Be Duplicated—United States Gains Much Valuable Knowledge from Observation of Methods by Fighting Forces in Europe—Plans Outlined.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Some idea of what American army officers are learning on the battlefields of Europe was given the senate military committee by Colonel C. G. Treat, of the army war college. Much of what the colonel said was treated as confidential, but it is known that he told the committee there was an American observer with the armies of each belligerent nation and that their reports to the war college had been of great value in the preparation of new army plans.

As a matter of course, Col. Treat said, none of the observers would send home during the war information which might be of value to other belligerents should it become known in this country.

Types of Guns Discussed. Both the congressional committee obtained much information as to artillery types. Brigadier-General Crozier, chief of ordnance, discussed in detail before the house committee the war department's plans for big guns, while Colonel Treat, a field artilleryman, talked of the lessons drawn from the war.

Colonel Treat disclosed that the war department has definite information as to the famous 42-centimeter howitzers which the Germans used to crush their way through French frontier forts. The guns can be fired without mounting them on concrete emplacements, he said, and made ready for use in less than an hour and a half after they reach a given point. Both he and General Crozier told of plans for using these guns, now being prepared in the war department.

He said they would be used in coast defense work, although motor tractor plans for their use in field operations also are being worked out.

Trench Warfare Not Expected. There is no reason to expect that trench warfare conditions will have to be met in this country, Colonel Treat said, and therefore the proportion of high explosive shells and shrapnel for field guns will not be altered as radically for the American army as the French and British have found necessary. Describing the effectiveness of high explosive fire at troops, he said it had been noted abroad that the moral effect of the detonation of these missiles was far greater than that of shrapnel.

Although the latter was more deadly, a high explosive shell bursting at the head of a column, he said, while it killed fewer men than a shrapnel shell, would be more likely to check the advance. The American three-inch field artillery, the colonel explained, duplicated the French 75 in every respect, but rapidly of fire, and experiments are in progress which, it is believed, will give the guns all the advantages of the French weapon.

VESSEL AT MERCY OF GALE FOR 16 HOURS IS FINALLY AT PORT

CENTRALIA HAD ROUGH TIME OF IT IN WIND BLOWING 90 MILES AN HOUR.

Captain Says the Trip Was the Worst in His Experience as Seaman—Ship Drifts Helplessly for Many Hours Broadside to a Pointing Sea—Water Was in Hull.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—Drifting helplessly for 16 hours broadside to the sea, during which the vessel covered 75 miles while her steering gear was broken, her engines using their power to pump water from her foreroom and holds, the steam schooner Centralia had the worst experience of any vessel which was off the Oregon coast last Saturday. With her main rigging carried away, her wireless crippled and 200,000 feet of her lumber cargo gone, the Centralia made port here yesterday afternoon from Grays Harbor and Captain Omond Evenden told of the voyage.

"I never saw anything like it," he said. "The wind blew 90 miles an hour. We lost our deckload and our steam had to be used to pump water from the hull."

"We left Grays Harbor Thursday morning and struck a southeast and then a southwest gale as soon as we got to sea. Saturday we had our trouble when we were 120 miles south of the Columbia river and the wind was southeast."

According to H. A. Langley of Curlew, Alberta, a passenger on the steamer, the crew worked like Trojans to repair the broken steering gear and pump out the hull while the vessel was drifting broadside to the sea. Besides Langley, other passengers were Mrs. C. Burkhardt and two children, Marguerite and Charles of Hoquiam, and Mrs. H. McReynolds of Oakland.

The Eureka stood by after the 8 o'clock gale, but was lost after three hours in the storm. No other vessels were sighted by the Centralia.

SATIRE IS AIMED AT FORD. Washington, Jan. 26.—Henry Ford and his peace ship were the subject of scathing sarcasm from the Rev. Dr. Charles Wood, pastor of the Church of the Covenant. A few ideologists and enthusiasts charter a ship and sail for Europe without even the bulwark of common sense," declared Dr. Wood in attacking the peace party, of which his noted fellow pastor, the Rev. Dr. Charles F. Aked, was a member. "And when they reach the war zone they attempt to lure Mars from his feast of blood by a few honeyed words and a bouquet."

This attack came as a part of a ten-minute sermon delivered on the subject of "The King of Kings," suggested by Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," which was sung in its entirety.

CAMPS AND MILLS ARE RENEWING OPERATIONS

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 26.—The DuBois Lumber Company's mill in this city, resumed operations after having been closed for several weeks on account of the weather.

The Murphy Timber company, operating near Yafoit, opened its camps, which also had been closed on account of the weather.

The shops of the Twin Falls Logging company at Yacolt are busy getting equipment ready for active operations in the near future, and it is said this company, controlled by the Veyerhaeuser interests, will start logging about March 1.

The Harvey Milling Company, with head offices in this city, expects to start two sawmills about March 1, and the logging camps will open in advance of that.

There seems to be a bright future for the lumber market, and all of the millmen running have orders in hand and are receiving many inquiries. The big mills of the Bridal Veil Lumber Company, at Bridal Veil, Ore., were reported to have resumed, after several weeks idleness, during which repairs were made.

CHINESE REBELS WARN LEGATION AT PEKING

PEKING, Jan. 25.—Tung Chi Yao, who has been appointed military governor of Yunnan by the rebels of that province, and Jen Kao-Tung, the civil governor under the rebel regime, sent letters to the legations at Peking respecting the conduct of affairs by the republic of Yunnan, the existence of which was proclaimed last month by the revolutionists.

The letters say that Yunnan republic will respect all Chinese treaties, agreements and obligations which antedate the movement for restoration of the monarchy and will repudiate all others. The legations are warned that the republic will confiscate contraband destined for the government of President Yuan Shi Kai.

The request is made that the powers remain neutral in the struggle between the revolutionists and the government of Yuan Shi Kai. Protection for foreigners is promised.

HOW SHE ENDED TEN YEARS OF SKIN-TORTURE

Oct. 28, 1914.—"I had eczema on my face for ten years. Little red pimples formed in a small spot on my chin and then spread all over my face. They itched and burned me awfully. It was certainly embarrassing to me, and I would not go amongst people. I tried almost every remedy and treatment that could be used for this trouble, but nothing did me any good. I used Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, and was relieved in a day or two. In one month I was cured. This was six months ago and the trouble has never returned." (Signed) Mrs. C. C. Roberts, Weatherford, Okla.

The Resinol treatment quickly heals eczema, rashes, ringworm, and other eruptions, and clears away disfiguring pimples and blackheads, even when other treatments prove worse than useless. Doctors have prescribed Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap for eighteen years, and all druggists sell them.
